Keep Florida Beautiful While You're Here

Florida's sunny beaches, charming towns, and natural wonders attract millions of visitors each year. While you're here soaking up the sunshine and experiencing the magic of the state, it's easy to give back and keep Florida beautiful for all who visit.

One simple way to contribute is by helping to pick up litter. Whether you're strolling on the beach, hiking a nature trail, or exploring city streets, take a moment to grab any trash you see and dispose of it properly. Many areas offer trash and recycling bins, so your small acts of kindness can make a big difference in maintaining Florida's pristine landscapes.

Recycling is another big way you can help. When enjoying beverages, snacks, or meals, sort your disposables into recycling bins whenever available. Many Florida beaches and parks have clear signs making it easy to know what goes where. Consider bringing along your reusable water bottles, straws, or tote bags to minimize waste while traveling. Some local restaurants and attractions even have initiatives to reduce plastic and encourage recycling—that's your chance to support eco-friendly businesses! Small changes in your vacation habits can go a long way in keeping the state a model for environmental care.

Another rewarding way to make a difference is by volunteering during your visit. Many local organizations host beach and park clean-up days where you can join fellow nature enthusiasts in removing trash and debris. For a hands-on impact, consider participating in tree and garden planting events, which help beautify public spaces and restore natural habitats. These activities are not only fun, but they also allow you to connect with the local community and make memories while leaving Florida a little more beautiful. Check with local visitor centers to find opportunities near your destination. For more information or to donate, visit keepfloridabeautiful.org.

Neon Dreams & Upside-Down Greens at Ripley's New Attraction

Ripley's Believe It or Not! World Entertainment has officially brought its signature flair for the bizarre to ICON Park with Ripley's Crazy Golf. Tee up on an indoor, glow-in-the-dark experience that feels like stepping into a neon-soaked alternative dimension.

The concept flips traditional mini golf on its head... sometimes literally. Prepare for vibrant lighting, 360-degree loops, and obstacles that seem to defy gravity. It's immersive, fun for all ages, and exactly the kind of "weird" you expect from Ripley's Believe It or Not! World Entertainment. Ripley's Crazy Golf transforms a simple game of putting into an otherworldly adventure where the unexpected is just "par" for the course.

Jim Pattison, Jr., President of Ripley's Believe It or Not! World Entertainment sums up the philosophy behind the madness perfectly: "We've taken everything people love about our attractions, imagination, and oddities and brought it to the putting green. It's outrageous. It's unpredictable. It's crazy in the best way possible!"

This new venue represents the third and most ambitious entry for Ripley's Crazy Golf. It sits comfortably alongside the brand's other I-Drive staples, the famous Ripley's Believe It or Not! Orlando Attraction and Ripley's Mirror Maze, solidifying this stretch of Orlando as a hub for the unconventional.

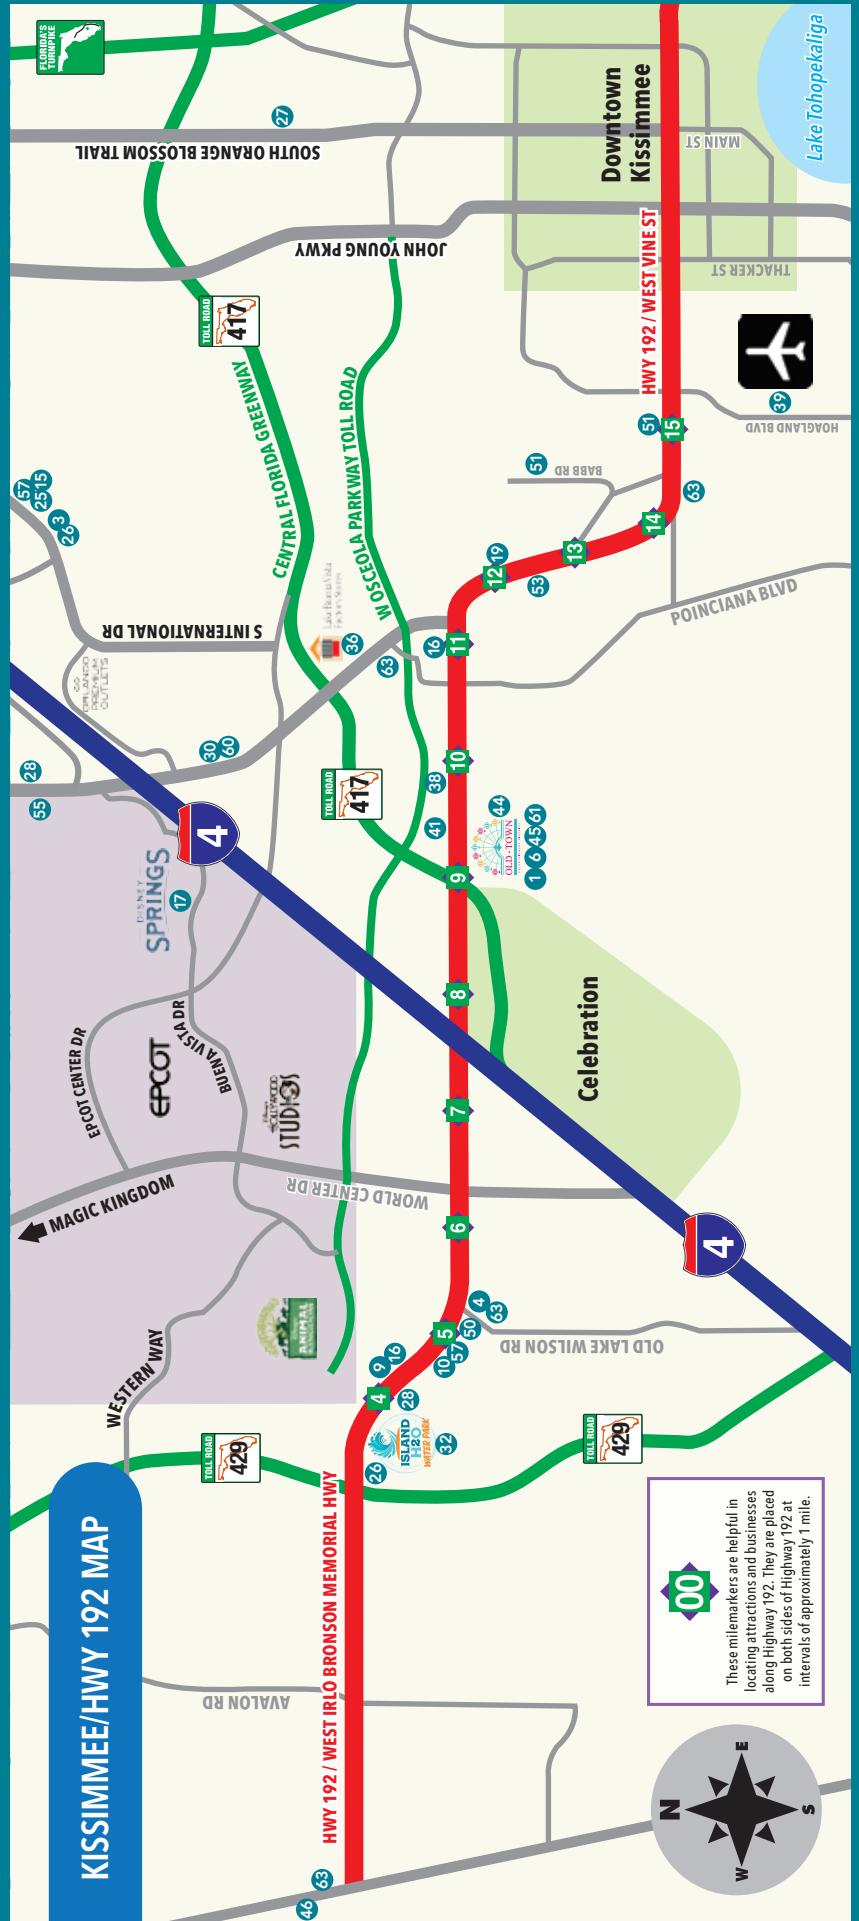

For ICON Park, the arrival of such a high-profile, engaging attraction is a major win. It adds a whole new layer of energy to their existing lineup, offering families something that bridges the gap between passive sightseeing and active fun. Visit their ad on page 8 for more info and a discount.

Swimming Safety on Your Family Vacation

A vacation is all about sunshine, water, and making unforgettable memories. Whether you're at a resort pool, a water park, or even the ocean, safety should always come first. Start by setting clear rules for your kids. Teach them to never swim alone, even in shallow areas, and make it a habit to keep an adult nearby.

Pools can get busy, so remind children to avoid running on slippery surfaces and use designated play zones. At water parks, go over any height, age, or swimming ability requirements for slides and attractions to keep the fun mishap-free.

If your family is heading to the beach, take a moment to review ocean safety. Explain the dangers of riptides and the importance of swimming in designated areas where lifeguards are present. Show your kids how to identify a rip current and teach them to stay calm and float if caught in one, signaling for help instead of trying to swim against it. Avoid swimming at dawn or dusk to reduce the risk of shark encounters, and always heed local beach warning flags or signs. Also, be aware of the dangers of lightning and leave the water immediately if you hear thunder or see a storm approaching to ensure everyone stays safe.

Keep an eye on hydration, as kids often forget to drink enough water while they're having fun. Apply sunscreen generously and reapply it often to prevent sunburn. For younger kids, always use Coast Guard-approved flotation devices. Remind your children of the buddy system and encourage them to speak up if they're feeling tired or overwhelmed in the water. With these simple precautions, you can enjoy a safe and joyful Florida adventure your family will cherish forever.

A Rolling Tribute to Automotive History

Every Saturday night, the brick-lined streets of Old Town in Kissimmee transform into a moving museum, a vibrant parade of chrome and steel that captures the spirit of American automotive excellence. For over thirty years, the Saturday Night Car Cruise has been more than just an event; it's a cherished tradition. This weekly spectacle is a powerful draw for car enthusiasts, families, and anyone who appreciates the timeless beauty of classic automobiles.

The air fills with the rumble of finely tuned engines as hot rods, muscle cars, and vintage cruisers line up, each vehicle telling a unique story of its decade. It's a place where generations connect – grandparents share memories sparked by a '57 Chevy, while younger visitors marvel at the detailed craftsmanship. This shared passion fosters a remarkable sense of community, uniting strangers through a mutual love for automotive history. The cruise is not simply about showcasing cars; it's about celebrating the culture and American spirit they represent.

Old Town's cruises are a weekly celebration that offers a nostalgic escape and a lively atmosphere for all ages. Come and witness this incredible display of rolling art. Experience the sounds, see the sights, and feel the community spirit that makes Old Town an unforgettable Kissimmee tradition.

Starlight Spectacle Lights Up Magic Kingdom

As dusk settles over Cinderella Castle, a new constellation of magic begins to sparkle at Walt Disney World. The Disney Starlight: Dream the Night Away parade is illuminating Magic Kingdom with a breathtaking procession of light, music, and beloved characters, offering a fresh yet nostalgic nighttime experience.

Inspired by the cherished Main Street Electrical Parade, this dazzling spectacle is brought to life by the Blue Fairy herself. It transforms the park into a shimmering dreamscape under the stars. Guests will be mesmerized as enchanting floats glide by, celebrating iconic moments from favorite Disney and Pixar stories. See Moana navigating the seas, Peter Pan soaring to new heights, and characters from Encanto, Frozen, and Pinocchio come alive in a vibrant display. Each float is a masterpiece of light and imagination, creating a truly immersive experience for all ages.

The parade route weaves its way from Frontierland through Liberty Square and down the iconic Main Street, U.S.A., offering plenty of vantage points. For the best views, especially with Cinderella Castle as a backdrop, it's wise to secure a spot along

Main Street early. Check the My Disney Experience app for showtimes, as they can change. This shimmering procession is more than just a parade; it's a celebration of Disney dreams, making it an unforgettable finale to a day in the park. ## Blast Off Aboard the New Galacticoaster at LEGOLAND Florida

Families, start your engines – or rather, fire up your thrusters! LEGOLAND Florida Resort has launched its most ambitious adventure yet. Earlier this year, the park officially opened the airlocks to Galacticoaster, an all-new indoor roller coaster that promises to take family fun to intergalactic heights.

If you have aspiring astronauts or Master Builders in your crew, this is the news you've been waiting for. But this isn't just another track-and-train ride; it is a fully immersive mission where you are the captain.

Before you board, you won't just stand in line; you will design your own ride. Using interactive touchscreens in the pre-show area, every recruit gets to customize their virtual spacecraft. You can choose different noses, tails, wings, and special features to craft the perfect vessel for your mission.

The ride rockets you through a LEGO solar system filled with dazzling special effects and synchronized lighting. You will zoom past planets, dodge asteroids, and encounter surprise appearances from classic LEGO Space characters that parents might recognize from their own childhoods. The pacing is quick and energetic, hitting speeds up to 40 mph. It provides that "wind in your hair" excitement without being too intense for the younger cadets in your squad.

If you have little ones who aren't quite tall enough for the 36-inch requirement, they aren't left out. The DUPLO® Tot Spot is located nearby, offering a soft play zone specifically designed for astronauts aged 1-4. It allows the whole family to stay together in the same zone while older siblings tackle the coaster.
